

Carla works closely with University Hospital (now Piedmont) taking care of the insurance needs of the retirees and their families. She has been with Head Capital for thirteen years, but she has been dedicated solely to this large retiree group for the past ten years.

Carla is a licensed Health and Life insurance agent. She has over thirty-seven years in customer service.