

Russell T. Head is the CEO of the Acrisure firm, Head Capital Advisors. Russell is responsible for designing, developing and implementing risk management products and services for the firm. These services include carrier selection and management, vendor evaluation, financial analysis, population health management, and client strategic planning.

Russell has 28 years of experience in the financial and employee benefits consulting industry. He was previously President of both Group & Benefits Consultants and HKH Healthcare Consultants.

Russell is a graduate of Berry College in Mt. Berry, Ga. with a BS in Interdisciplinary in Social Science with a major emphasis in Business and Psychology. Russell has earned the designations of Chartered Benefits Consultant (CBC) and Certified Senior Advisor (CSA).