

Christina focuses on advising for under-50 groups and individual policies, including Medicare supplements and Medicare Advantage plans. She has over 15 years of experience in insurance advising, with experience in both the carrier and broker sides.

In addition to her health and life license, Christina is also licensed in property and casualty insurance, and is a certified health coach.