

Cris serves primarily as a large group account manager for Head Capital Advisors. With over 15 years in the employee benefits arena, her experience includes individual, small, medium and large accounts.

Cris holds a certification for Professional Disability Management (CPDM), and has done undergraduate work in business management and medicine. She is also a licensed Health and Life Insurance agent.